Bangladesh High Commission in New Delhi Hosts a Reception Ahead of the Bangladesh Investment Summit 2025

Bangladesh High Commission in New Delhi organized a reception cum interactive session for Investors and Business Leaders from India at the High Commission premises in the evening of 20 March 2025. Representatives from Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI) and numerous medium and large enterprises and conglomerates, such as Larsen & Toubro, Ashok Leyland, Godrej, IRCON International Ltd., NTPC Ltd. and Indian Oil, attended the event and participated in discussions on the potential investment opportunities in Bangladesh.

The session was organized ahead of the forthcoming Bangladesh Investment Summit 2025 scheduled to take place from 7 to 10 April 2025 in Dhaka to showcase the transformed and new investment climate in Bangladesh.

In his welcome speech, Acting High Commissioner Md Nurul Islam highlighted on the fresh vision, dynamism and vigor of the new leadership in Bangladesh, and underscored the rapid progress that is creating a favorable environment for investment. "With abundant energy and labour supply at the best competitive rate, it is difficult to find a country better equipped for foreign investment that can offer equivalent or better return on investment," said the Acting High Commissioner.

A video message from the Chief Adviser of Bangladesh inviting the investors to attend the Bangladesh Business Summit was screened. Minister (Political) of the High Commission delivered a presentation highlighting the business and investment potentials in Bangladesh in light of the recent changes. The presentation shed light on the possible takeaways from the upcoming Investment Summit and encouraged everyone to attend the Summit to experience the positive changes going on in Bangladesh. Minister (Political), Counsellor (Commerce) and Counsellor (Economic) responded to queries from the potential investors and business representatives during the Q&A session.

Exchange of views among the business representatives and the High Commission officials made the interactive session a lively one. The visiting business leaders and representatives graciously welcomed the event and requested the High Commission to organize such events on a regular interval.
